

Greg Hartman

508 Brier St, Kenilworth, IL, 60043

224-639-0902 g.hartman18@comcast.net

Personal Statement:

I have been playing music since I was five years old and have been fortunate enough to study with some of the top performers and teachers in the world. I not only love playing the drums, but I love sharing my knowledge and experience with those who are eager to learn. I enjoy forming a relationship with my students and feel pride as I see them grown musically and as people.

Education:

BM Jazz Studies, May 2015

University of Southern California

Studied privately with Prof. Peter Erskine and Prof. Aaron Serfaty

Graduated Magna Cum Laude with 3.80 GPA

Teaching/Work Experience:

-Mentor at USC Thornton Outreach Program (2012-2015)

- Taught private lessons to middle and high school age students

- Led sectionals for middle and high school beginning band and jazz ensembles

- Taught Jazz in the Classroom curriculum to middle school students

Student Coordinator for 2013-2015 Drum Days at USC Thornton Outreach Program (2012-2015)

- Solicited instrument companies for raffle item donations

- Organized master classes with USC faculty members

- Oversaw the operation of the event days

Student Teacher at Midwest Young Artists 2012 and 2013 Chicago Jazz Workshop

- Led rehearsals, master classes and performed in combos with students

Performance Experience:

- Performed with Jeff Coffin, Steve Davis, and Seamus Blake at venues such as the 2011 JEN Conference, the New Trier High School Jazz Festival, the Chicago Jazz Showcase, the Bimhuis, the Amsterdam Blue Note, and the Jay Pritzker Pavilion

Awards and Honors:

- Member of Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society

- Member of USC Dean's list for eight consecutive semesters