

Education:

Graduate program in American Contemporary Music at the University of Maryland, Baltimore County- Graduate Certificate Program 2005-2006
Peabody Conservatory of Music- BM in Clarinet Performance 2001-2005
Robinson Secondary School, Middle School and High School class of 2001

Professional Experience:

Principal Clarinet, Great Falls Symphony September 2006- Present
Clarinet, Chinook Winds Quintet, September 2006- Present

Teaching:

Maintains private teaching studio in Great Falls, MT September 2006- Present
Adjunct Clarinet Professor, University of Great Falls September 2006- Present
Teaches sectionals with the Great Falls Youth Symphony September 2006- Present
Clarinet teacher at the George Mason Summer Woodwind Camp Summer of 2005
Keyboard teacher and band coach at Day Jams summer camp Alexandria, VA summer of 2002

Other Professional Performance Experience:

Clarinetist with the Woodbridge Chamber Orchestra January 2006- August 2006
Pit musician for Melodrama "Caesar or the watchdog of the Castle" Winter of 2006
Clarinetist in self-formed woodwind quartet, The Four Winds, September 2005- August 2006

Summer Festivals/ Master Classes:

Coaching with Midori during her residency with the Great Falls Symphony, 06-07 season

Master class led by George Silfies, former Principal Clarinet with St. Louis Symphony, Peabody 2005

Master class led by Kimball Sykes, Principal the National Arts Centre Orchestra, Peabody 2004

ARIA Music Festival Summer of 2002: Studied with Yehuda Gilad and Michael Webster, took lessons, performed in master classes, performed in a recital

Master class led by the Tokyo String Quartet, Peabody 2002